PERFORMANCE CHARACTERISTICS

In 2003, the revolutionary Boxer put Naish on the map as a brand with no fear of the future. Three years of intense development with wave-riding star Kauli Seadi has resulted in a wave/freestyle sail that delivers world championship performance and is instantly recognizable on the water. For 2006, the Boxer has an exciting new look, and an outline carefully tuned to Kauli's specifications.

- A unique Wave/Freestyle sail for a wide range of conditions
- Engineered for maximum strength and light weight
- Great new look and Naish quality

WHAT'S NEW IN DESIGN

- Outline geometry fine-tuned with an even shorter boom
- More X-ply and less Insignia cloth means even lighter weight
- Computer faired luff curve and shaping for maximum performance and mast compatibility

WHAT'S NEW IN CONSTRUCTION

- X-ply construction in critical load areas
- Radial tack and clew
- Naish quality construction features for lasting value
